

Each edge represents a physical same-aircraft rotation connection. Probabilities are edge-level model estimates and are not multiplied into a joint chain probability.